FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – BURGLARY SUSPECT APPREHENDED IN CANAL WINCHESTER, OHIO

[Lancaster, Ohio, November 16, 2010] Detectives have charged BRANDON BOWMAN, 26, of 3737 Chartridge Dr., Canal Winchester, Ohio with one (1) count of Robbery (F2), with a gun specification, punishable by up to 8 years in prison and $15,000 fine, one (1) count of Burglary with a gun specification, punishable by up to 8 years in prison and $15,000 fine, one (1) count of Fleeing and Eluding (F3), punishable by up to 5 years in prison and $10,000 fine, and two (2) counts of Theft of a Firearm (F3), with a gun specification, punishable by up to 5 years in prison and $10,000 fine.

On Monday, November 15, 2010 at 1:14 p.m., the Fairfield County Sheriff's Office received a 9-1-1 call from the homeowner at 7305 Hummell Rd., Carroll, Ohio reporting they just arrived home and found a suspicious car in their driveway and a man running out the front door. He jumped in his car and was leaving the area. The homeowner then began chasing the car while talking to a dispatcher giving them directions. The deputies then responded to the area and intercepted the suspect vehicle. Upon checking the home, it was discovered it had been broken into.

Deputies recovered several items from the vehicle including commemorative coins, assorted jewelry, firearms and currency that are believed to have been stolen from a home in the County. "We anticipate this individual will face additional charges in other burglary cases being investigated," stated Sheriff Phalen. Detectives are continuing their investigation into these crimes.
