FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

THREE SUSPECTS ARRESTED OUT OF BURGLARY RING

[Lancaster, Ohio, October 30, 2015] “The Fairfield County Sheriff’s Office has arrested two individuals in connection with a series of daytime burglaries.” stated Sheriff Dave Phalen.

On October 27, 2015 the Fairfield County Sheriff’s Office Detectives Andy Robberts and Scott Jones spotted a suspect vehicle at a residence on Coonpath Rd. This vehicle had been tied to several daytime burglaries in the Bloom Township area. The suspects began to leave the driveway when Detectives stopped the vehicle and arrested the occupants. Detectives when checking the occupant’s vehicle found numerous items stolen from nearby homes that had been burglarized. Sheriff Phalen stated, “The suspects have been targeting homes that sit back off the road in which firearms, electronic equipment, Longaberger baskets and other items have been stolen.” Detectives arrested Ryan T. Poston, Dakota G. Randolph, and Eric Boice all of Lancaster Ohio.

Detectives from the Fairfield County Sheriff’s Office and the Major Crimes Unit assisted in the investigation Sheriff Dave Phalen states, “This investigation is ongoing and we anticipate more individuals will be arrested and additional charges filed.”
