FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – FREE EVENT HONORS MILITARY & FIRST RESPONDERS

[Lancaster, Ohio, November 1, 2012] "Freedom's Never Free 2012," an annual appreciation celebration for our Veterans, Military and First Responders, will take place this Saturday, November 3rd, 2012 from 2-6 p.m. at the Greenfield Township Fire Department located at 3245 Havensport Road NW, Carroll, Ohio 43112. MSgt Steve Walters, retired Lima Company, Tuskegee Airmen, Lima Company, Sheriff Dave Phalen, and Chief Terry Morris will be guest speakers this year.

Columbus Blue Jackets are bringing their "street rink" from 2-3:30 p.m. where the public is welcome to participate in a street hockey game. The Order of the Purple Heart, OMHF (Ohio Military Hall of Fame), Heritage Drums and Fife Corps, and much more will be joining us as well. The "ceremony" begins at 4 p.m. and all who attend will enjoy dinner, guest speakers, and entertainment. We encourage those who come, to stay for the "ceremony," which is the "meat" of the event.

This event is sponsored and hosted by The Remnant Expressive Signing Team and made possible, in part, by donations from businesses and organizations. The event is designed to honor our American heroes. Past and present members of the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, National Guard, Coast Guard, First Responders, and their families, will be recognized and honored at this event. All are encouraged to join us in showing appreciation to those who've sacrificed so much for all of us. The event is free and all are welcome.
